Tests will be given in LBH on the Portland Campus, on the following dates: May 14, May 21, and June 3.

FINAL PLANS FOR INAUGURATION

Martin B. Watts, a junior in English at the University of Maine in Portland, has been selected as one of the six panelists representing more than 6,000 students of the University of Maine at the inauguration ceremonies at Orono honoring President Edwin Young on Thursday, April 21.

Watts, will participate on a panel on "The Literary Horizon." L. Morrill Burke, Jr., assistant professor of English at UMP, will also participate on the same panel. Dr. David R. Fink, Jr., dean of the University of Maine in Portland, will serve as chairman of the seminar on "The Educational Crisis."

A bus has been chartered by UMP to provide transportation for students and faculty members for the ceremonies. Daytime classes on Thursday are cancelled, but evening classes will be held as usual on Thursday. The bus will leave from Payson Smith Hall at 6:30 a. m. and return late Thursday afternoon.

CARNEGIE TRIO TO PERFORM APRIL 25

The Carnegie Trio from Orono will give a concert Monday, April 25, in LBH Auditorium at 8 p.m. The Trio, members of the U. of Maine music faculty, will play Joseph Haydn's Trio in C major; Dumky, Trio in E minor, and Enrique Fernandez-Arbos' Spanish Dancers. The concert is open to the public and is free of charge.

ASTRONOMER TO SPEAK

Dr. Kenneth L. Franklin, astronomer at the American Museum-Hayden Planetarium and specialist in both radio astronomy and binary stars, will deliver two lectures this week at UMP.

On Thursday, April 21, at 8 p. m. Dr. Franklin will speak on "Life Beyond the Earth". On Friday, April 22, he will give a lecture on "Radio Astronomy" at 4:00 p. m.

EDITORIALS

CONGRATULATIONS

The UMPus would like to congratulate Mayor Tom Hardy on his victory at the polls, and also extend an honorable mention to Chuch Allen, Dick Catir and John Donovan for their colorful campaigns.

SENIOR HONOR SOCIETIES

In keeping with the expansion and growing prestige of UMP we feel that the addition of an honor society for seniors, such as the All Maine Women and Senior Skulls at Orono, would be of great benefit. The way things are now seniors at UMP just fade away. Something is needed to keep the Maine tradition alive when UMP students reached their senior year.

Because of the differences between the two schools our societies could be modeled on Orono's, but tailored to our needs.

We understand that there will be a meeting for all junior women interested in organizing a senior group Friday, April 29 at 1:00 p.m. in the Student Union. We feel this is a step toward helping a growing UMP, but wonder when the junior men will be motivated.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Many of the most satisfying moments in academic life come when students get a good idea and bring it into existence, often with faculty cooperation and assistance. Last Saturday was such a moment as the Owls and Eagles held their Art Auction. This particular idea fits so well into the meaning of a university campus and was so well arranged that it should not go by without recognition. My congratulations go to all those who planned the affair and also to those who supported the auction by their attendance.

Sincerely,

David R. Fink, Jr.
Dean

We, the members of the Senior Class (with a few added stars from our friends in the Junior Class) do hereby issue the following challenge:

(1) To contest any team of faculty or administration members in a game of softball.

(2) This game to be held in the AM of Maine Day, Wednesday, May 4, on a field preferably in Deering Oaks or Portland Stadium.

(3) The result of this game to either support or dispel the issue of youth versus experience.

(4) No excuse by either faction will be accepted for whatever reason and will, instead, be an acknowledgment of that party's concession of the issue.

INSIDE SPORTS
With Walt Abbott

The Intramural Season ends Friday with the crowning of the 1966 championship team. Most probably this team will either be "Poor Ernies" or "Unquenchable Humpers" who will meet in the final game Friday, April 22. The probable line-ups:

Poor Ernies

E. Lynch	G
J. Trecartin	G
R. Emerson	F
R. Small	F
Randall	C

Unquenchable-Humpers

J. Newman	G
R. Christie	G
R. Turkington	F
W. Abbott	F
M. Eastman	C

Super-Subs Brownell and Boomhour will also see action in all probability. The game promises to be exciting, close, and rough. Don't miss this one!

At this time of the year I usually present my annual intramural awards. These awards are based on personal judgement, and I do not consider high scoring a reference point.

ALL -Star First Team

J. Trecartin	G
J. Newman	G
R. Strout	F
R. Small	F
J. Sparrow	C

ALL-Star Second Team

R. Christie	G
B. Clark	G
P. Legge	F
R. Emerson	F
T. Holt	C

Honorable Mention - E. Lynch, A. Roper, T. Trufant, G. Morrill, R. Turkington, M. Gouzie,

Super-Sub - B. Brownell

Best Rebounder - R. Strout

Best Playmaker - J. Newman

Best Referee - J. Coyne

Rookie of Year - R. Christie

Sport Shorts: The tennis team came up with an impressive victory over Gorham State College last Friday. UMP played best in the doubles matches... Next week look for my annual eagerly-awaited, optimistic baseball preview.

CLUB NEWS

Guest Speakers at Spanish Club
By Marilyn Reynolds

Friday, April 8, "El Circulo Espanol" presented two guest speakers. Miss Karen Keef of Windham spoke about her experiences as an American Field Service exchange student living in Tatui, Brazil. Her talk was supplemented with slides and a collection of souvenirs that she brought back with her. The second guest speaker was Senor Juan Llado from the Dominican Republic. Juan is presently an exchange student at Deering High School. He spoke about the conditions in his country and also showed slides. It was a very interesting meeting enjoyed by all that attended.

The last meeting of El Circulo Espanol will be held the first Friday in May.

Circle K Club to Sell Grade Cards
By Judy Oldham

The Circle K Club soon will have available for a small fee grade cards to be given to your professors who, in turn, will send your final exam grade and course grade to your home.

Recently elected officers of the Circle K Club for the 1966-67 school year are: President - Phil Cutler, Vice-President - Bob Dodge, Secretary - Pete Kovac, Treasurer - Bill Kaufman, Board of Directors - Joe Thornton and Stu Olesen. Elected as delegates to the Circle K International Convention to be held in Dallas, Texas in August were Phil Cutler and Stu Olesen.

At the New England District Convention of Circle K held in Bangor April 17 and 18, Bill Kaufman was elected Lieutenant Governor of his district, and the club received a third-place achievement trophy based on its accumulated man-hours from service projects.

In Brief:

... The Eagles will be finishing up their interview this week in the small dining room from 3-4 and Friday at noon.

Owls interviews began Tuesday and are scheduled Friday from 2-4 and Tues. 9-3.
